

IFCPP SECURITY RESOURCES AND TRAINING DISCOUNTS

Several cultural property association members have expressed that during public closures, they're making use of the time to catch up on overdue or needed training (and other critical security tasks). In response to increased demand for training during closures, and to ease the burden of growing budgetary constraints, IFCPP is pleased to offer MPMA members half off of all online training courses. The 50% discount includes the following educational offerings:

Certified Institutional Protection Manager (CIPM) – security manager/director certification

Certified Institutional Protection Specialist (CIPS) – security officer/frontline staff certification

Certified Visitor Relations Specialist (CVRS) – customer-service-centric certification for frontline security and visitor services staff

Conflict Resolution – confrontation de-escalation training for frontline security and visitor services staff

Collaborative Museum Collections Protection – bridging the gap between security and collections management

Entry Screening Considerations – for those managers/administrators that are in the process of determining new/changing entry screening practices

Continuing Education Lectures – a series of special-topic lectures for security managers and administrators

Learn more by clicking the program links above, and contact us with questions or for enrollment instructions (discounts will be applied manually).

IFCPP is here to support our membership however we can – together we shall endure and forge ahead.

We'll remain available 5 or more days/week to provide assistance by email and/or phone!

Sincerely,
IFCPP
